

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Here the undersigned, Olof van Winden, and the TodaysArt team have been notified of the budget cut for MoTA – Museum of Transitory Art by the Ministry of Culture.

By not supporting MoTA, the Ministry of Culture will threaten our future partnership with MoTA within the SHAPE network, as well as the development of present and future collaborations. Working together with MoTA has given us the opportunity to present Slovenian artists in our festival programming in the Netherlands, which would not have been possible without our collaboration. We strongly believe that MoTA is valuable and important in the Slovenian cultural scene and the loss of funding will leave Slovenian audiences without important programs.

I fully support MoTA in their request for financing.
